Section 1:

Member information

ReddiFund Mutual Benefit Fund Discretionary Trust Overview

The Discretionary Trust is made up of two parts:

1

The Trust Cover

This is risk cover, but it is not insurance because the Trustee has a discretion as to whether or not to pay a Claim and how much to pay.

2

The Insurance Cover

The Insurance Cover, which is insurance. A Member has a third-party beneficial interest in the Insurance Policy which is purchased by the Trustee for the Discretionary Trust and its Members.

The Discretionary Trust has been established to help manage the Members' risk of funeral costs; events occurring whilst on the usual journey between home and work; events occurring when Members are travelling for leisure and child care benefits payable as a result of death of the Member's spouse.

There are risks that a Prospective Member or a Member should be aware of associated with the Discretionary Trust including:

1. The payment of benefits under the Trust Cover is at the discretion of the Trustee which means that the Trustee may exercise its discretion not to pay a Claim.
2. The Insurance Cover component has various conditions and exclusions. Therefore, if a Claim is in excess of the Individual Member's Deductible and the Trust Cover, and the Insurance Cover component comes into effect, the Claim may not be covered under the Insurance Cover component as a result of the conditions and exclusions.
3. Renewed membership of the Discretionary Trust is at the discretion of the Trustee and a Member's cover may cease after the expiry of the Period of Cover if renewed membership is not offered. If this happens, a Claim cannot be made for an event occurring after the expiry of the Period of Cover.
4. Should the funds within the Trust reach zero, a Claim cannot be paid under the Trust Cover, even if it is within the Period of Cover. However, the Claim may be addressed by the Insurance Cover (subject to its various conditions and exclusions).

A Prospective Member may become a Member of the Discretionary Trust by making the payment of the Membership Contributions shown on the Tax Invoice within 30 days of receipt of this PDS and the Tax Invoice, whichever is later, or such longer period as is determined by the Trustee. The Insurance Broker will forward the Membership Contribution to the Trustee.

The Trustee pools the Membership Contributions of all Members and holds them in the Fund. The Fund is used to meet Claims under the Trust Cover, purchase the Insurance Cover and meet the costs of establishing and running the Discretionary Trust.

Membership of the Discretionary Trust is for the Period of Cover, unless cancelled earlier. A Claimant is entitled to lodge a Claim for events which, occur after the Prospective Member becomes a Member and during the Period of Cover, but no later than 4 months after the expiry of the Fund Period.

At the end of the Period of Cover the membership of each Member under the Fund ceases and the Member ceases to be covered. The Trustee will determine and advise the Member and the Advocate in writing not later than 14 days prior to the end of the Period of Cover whether the Member will be offered renewed membership for the next period of cover and if so, the terms of cover and the terms of the Trust Cover and to the extent possible, the Membership Contribution payable.

If the Trustee accepts a Claim, the Claimant must pay the Individual Member's Deductible as shown below and in the Insurance Policy (where it may be referred to as an 'excess', 'excess period', 'deductible', 'time deductible', as applicable). At the Trustee's discretion, the Trustee may pay the Claim and all associated expenses incurred under the Trust Cover.

Once the Trust Cover is exceeded, the Trustee will refer the Claim to the Insurer for the Insurer to decide whether or not to pay the Claim in accordance with the Insurance Cover (see below).

The Discretionary Trust is neither authorised under nor subject to the Insurance Act 1973 (Cth), nor is it regulated by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority ("APRA").

Upon the closing of each Fund year, any surplus in the Fund will be disbursed for the benefit of the majority of the Members of the Fund.

This could be applied in the following ways:

- As a rebate on contributions for subsequent years; or
- For expenditure on administrative or operational issues relevant to the Fund; or
- On issues, which are relevant to Members and/or Member's businesses or which advance the purposes of the Fund generally.

The Trustee can dissolve the Trust after the expiry of the Fund Period. Upon dissolution of the Trust, any Fund balance remaining after payment of all liabilities of the Trust must be paid to a charity at the Trustee's discretion to which gifts are deductible in accordance with the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 (Cth).

Additional Benefit and Risk

The Discretionary Trust also provides Members and the Member's spouse and dependent children with access to cover for emergency transport. Prior to a claim for emergency transport being accepted by the Trustee, the Member must pay, the first $50.

This cover is provided by the Trust Cover of the Discretionary Trust and not Insurance Cover and each claim for emergency transport is subject to the Trustee's discretion.

Individual Member's Deductible

The terms used in this section have the same definitions as those within the Insurance Policy, where not already defined in this PDS.

These Individual Member Deductibles are non-cumulative.

Where any Individual Member Deductible is described as a period of time, it shall be subject to the conditions contained in the Insurance Policy, which is available on request from the Insurance Broker.

For any Claim in excess of the Individual Member's Deductible and the Trust Cover, the Insurance Cover and any applicable deductibles/excesses may come into play.

Trust Cover

Due to the Trustee's discretion, a Claim can be lodged under the Trust Cover for any event, not only those events that would be covered under the Insurance Cover (see Section 2 of the PDS) and the Trustee will consider the Claim.

A benefit of the discretionary Trust Cover is that Claims, which may not be covered under the Insurance Policy wording of the Insurance Cover may be paid by the Trustee, subject to this being for the benefit of the Members. However, the Trustee, in its sole discretion, may not exercise its discretion in favour of the Claimant. For details of further risks associated with this product, please refer to Section 1 of this PDS.

In exercising its discretion, the Trustee cannot be influenced by anyone and is legally bound to conduct its duties and obligations in accordance with trust law. The Trustee must settle each Claim in accordance with the merits of the Claim.

Insurance Cover

Insurance is purchased by the Trustee for the Discretionary Trust and its Members and provides cover for a Claim, which is:

1. in excess of the Individual Member's Deductible and the Trust Cover; and
2. subject to the Insurance Policy terms and conditions.

Certain details of the Insurance Cover can be found in Section 2 of this PDS. A copy of the Insurance Policy is available on request from the Insurance Broker.

Any Claim not met by the Trust Cover and/or the Insurance Cover will be borne by the Claimant.
